

FRESHMAN COUNTDOWN TO COLLEGE CALENDAR

PRESENTED BY  THE UNIVERSITY OF IOWA

August

- Schedule a FREE planning session with an ICAN Student Success Advisor. Visit ICANSucceed.org/apt or call (877) 272-4692.
- Start off on the right foot with your grades. Freshman grades matter. Colleges look at your overall GPA through all four years of high school.
- Extracurricular activities are a great way to meet new people and scholarship organizations consider a student's involvement in school and community activities.
- Earn scholarship money for classes you take, activities you are involved in, and events you attend. Visit Raise.Me, create a free account and start earning scholarship money from day one of freshman year.

September

- Ask your parents and other adults what they like and dislike about their careers. Find out what type of training or education is required for each job.
- Work with your school counselor and select courses that are recommended for optimum college preparation. Optimum preparation includes four years of English, math, science, social studies, and foreign language; and two years of electives.
- Discover different college options and learn about academics, admissions, major rankings, and more. Visit CollegeRaptor.com to explore four-year options. Visit curricunet.com/iowa_doe to learn about Iowa's technical and two-year programs.
- Stay organized with a planner or planning app.

October

- Develop an activities resume to keep track of your participation in extracurricular activities. This will be a great resource when it's time to fill out scholarship and college admission applications.
- Saving money is the best way to prepare for the cost of a college education. Check out ICANSucceed.org/payforcollege.
- Think about what you like to do, what you're good at and what you value most. Talk to your counselor about assessments to help you identify a potential career. Visit ICANSucceed.org/interests.
- Prepare for college with the ICAN Tip of the Week; sign up at ICANSucceed.org/signup.
- Talk to your parents about a college savings plan to help cover college costs.

November

- Compare college costs throughout the country by visiting Chegg.com.
- Talk to your parents about your plans for the future. Discuss your personal and academic strengths and your plan to reach your goals.
- Take an assessment test to determine which career paths best suit you. Visit ACTprofile.org.
- Read in your free time to develop a strong vocabulary, which is an important component in college entrance exams.

December

- Volunteer in your community. Some scholarships are awarded based on community service.
- How are your computer skills? Become proficient in common computer applications such as Word, Excel® and PowerPoint® and learn how to use the Internet as a research tool.
- Is there a college you've always dreamed of attending? Research colleges online and create a list of what you like most and least about each school. Visit ICANSucceed.org/colleges.

January

- Become familiar with the types of financial aid available for college. Financial aid includes grants, scholarships, work-study, and loans. Grants and scholarships don't have to be paid back. Work-study enables students to earn money by working on campus. Loans must be repaid. Visit ICANSucceed.org/payforcollege to learn more.
- What subjects do you like in school? ACTprofile.org is an online program that can help you search for careers related to those subjects.

February

- A majority of the fastest-growing jobs require some type of postsecondary education or training. Research careers to learn more about your options. Which jobs are in demand? What type of education or training is required?
- If you're an athlete hoping to play sports in college, plan ahead. Find the academic requirements at NCAAClearinghouse.net.
- Your grades are important, but most colleges prefer students who challenge themselves with tougher courses over students who take easier courses to boost GPAs.

March

- Update or create your plan with ICAN. Call (877) 272-4692 or visit ICANSucceed.org/apt to schedule.
- Meet with your school counselor to select your classes for 10th grade. Choose your courses wisely to stay on track to meet college admission requirements.
- Continue to research jobs related to your interests. Learn more at ICANSucceed.org/interests.
- Make the most of your summer. Search for summer camps in your area of interest (e.g., sports, band, drama, or academics). Check with teachers, counselors, and coaches for recommendations.

April

- Explore the colleges you're interested in attending. Do your classes align with the school's admission requirements and academic profile? If not, what GPA do you need to achieve? Which classes should you take to prepare for college?
- Do you have friends or family who are high school seniors? Talk to them about their plans for next year. Ask them how they made their decisions and what was involved in the process.
- Attend a game, play, concert or other cultural experience on a local college campus to get exposure to the campus environment.

May

- Check with your school counselor to see if you can attend a summer camp or program to catch up or to get ahead academically.
- Learn about the world of work through job shadowing, volunteering, or interning this summer.
- Build relationships with teachers, counselors, coaches, and community members. Some could write letters of recommendation when it's time to submit scholarship and/or college applications.

June

- Start a summer reading list.
- Will you be attending summer camp on a college campus? If so, while you're there, think about whether you'd like to attend the school.
- Update your Raise.Me account to earn additional scholarship dollars.
- Talk to your family members, friends, teachers, school counselors, and coaches about their college experiences.

July

- Review your career assessment results and make a list of colleges you're interested in researching based on your results. Visit ICANSucceed.org/colleges.
- This summer, participate in hobbies and activities related to your career interests.
- Don't be afraid to alter your career goals as you learn more about yourself and the world of work, but remember to keep your goals attainable.

Visit www.ICANSucceed.org/apt or call (877) 272-4692 to schedule an appointment to create a plan for college and career, as well as financial aid.

- What subjects do you like in school? To search for careers related to those subjects, visit ACTprofile.org.
- Take advantage and meet with college representatives visiting your high school.

December

- College can be affordable! Don't let the "sticker price" scare you. With financial aid and planning you can help ensure your out-of-pocket costs are manageable. Visit with an ICAN advisor and evaluate your college list to see what fits your goals and is affordable for you. Use a budget calculator or download the in-school budget worksheet from ICANSucceed.org/resourcezone.
- Talk to your school counselor about college admission requirements and make sure you take the right classes.
- Education after high school doesn't have to include a four-year degree. Find out more about apprenticeships, certificate programs, two-year degrees, and other programs through the Career Clusters at ACTprofile.org.

January

- Schedule an advising session at your local ICAN Center by visiting ICANSucceed.org/apt. Talk with a Student Success Advisor about your future and develop a plan for success.
- Become familiar with the types of financial aid available for college. Financial aid includes grants, scholarships, work-study and loans. Grants and scholarships don't have to be paid back. Work-study enables students to earn money by working. Loans must be repaid.
- Review your financial plan for college and make sure it aligns with your career assessment and salary options. Visit ACTprofile.org.
- Update your Raise.Me account to earn additional scholarship dollars.

February

- Begin thinking about college majors. Which majors match your skills and interests? ACT Profile is an online tool that can help you research college majors. Visit ACTprofile.org.
